

Flight Operations Functions

Flight Operations responsibilities include the following functions:

Flight Operations

- AOC Initial
- AOC Initial QA/QC
- AOC Renewal
- AOC Renewal QA/QC
- AOC Surveillance
- Evaluate an Aircraft Lease Agreement
- Amendment of C of A Commercial
- Re-issue of C of A commercial
- Addition of AC to AOC
- Ramp Inspections of commercially operated aircraft

Issuance of Special Flight Permits Commercial Operated AC

- Ramp Inspections of Business Aircraft
- Re-issue of C of A Business Aircraft

Issuance of Special Flight Permits Business Operated AC

- MEL Certificates
- AFM/POH Certificates
- AMS Approvals
- M & B / Equipment Lists/ MCM Approvals
- Evaluate an Extended Range Operations With Two-Engine Airplanes (ETOPS)
- Evaluate a Reduced Vertical Separation Minimums (RVSM) Program
- Evaluate a Special Means of Navigation
- Approve Special Category I/ Category II/ Category III Operation
- Initial Part 138 Approvals
- Initial Part 138 Approvals QA/QC
- Ramp Inspections Part 138
- NTCA Commercial ATF
- NTCA commercial Ramp
- NTCA Private Ramp Inspections
- Council Docs
- Council Representation
- Evaluate an Exemption, Deviation, or Waiver Request
- Conduct an Enforcement Investigation
- Investigate a Noise Complaint or Damage Caused by a Civil Aircraft
- Investigate Reports of Reckless Flying
- Investigate a Hazardous Air Traffic Report (HATR)
- Investigate a Pilot Deviation
- Investigate a Report of a Near Midair Collision (NMAC)
- Investigate a Report of Emergency Evacuation
- Investigate an Incident Involving Hazardous Materials

- Investigate a Foreign Air Carrier Incident
- Conduct a Ramp Inspection of Foreign Registered Aircraft
- Investigate a Foreign Air Carrier Incident
- FOP Evaluations