

EASA Certification Information

No.: 2018-01
Issued: 12.01.2018

Subject: Transfer of Supplemental Type Certificate from SAS Technical Service AB to MAP Aircraft Part 21 AS

Supplemental Type Certificate: EASA STC EASA.A.S.01571.

Issued by: European Aviation Safety Agency

Supplemental Type Certificate Holder: SAS Technical Service AB

New Holder of the Certificate: MAP Aircraft Part 21 AS

Background:

Scandinavian Airlines System has made an application, dated 10 October 2017, to EASA for the transfer of its Supplemental Type Certificate (STC) EASA.A.S.01571 rev. 2 to MAP Aircraft Part 21 AS.

MAP Aircraft Part 21 AS holds an EASA Design Organisation Approval (ref. EASA.21J.326) and is deemed to be able to undertake the obligations under 21A.118A and for this purpose, has demonstrated its ability to qualify under the criteria of 21A.112B of the Annex I (Part 21) to Regulation (EU) No 748/2012.

As a consequence, EASA has accepted the transfer and re-issued the Supplemental Type Certificate.

All Airworthiness Directives (ADs) related to these products are still applicable unless replaced or cancelled
