

Le ven. 6 mars 2020 à 16:22, Lee, David A (FAA) <david.a.lee@faa.gov> a écrit :

On March 6, 2020, the FAA Small Airplane Standards Branch issued a CANIC, copy attached.

Make/Model: Gulfstream Aerospace Corporation GVII-G500 and GVII-G600

Subject: This message is to advise you of the FAA's ongoing activities related to unanticipated activation of the angle of attack limiting function of the flight control software (i.e., the alpha limiter).