Why visit the NGAP Exhibition

Current shortage and long-term forecasts of aviation Personnel threaten the safety, growth & sustainability of aviation operations

By 2043, the global aviation industry will need additional:

- 698,000 Engineers/Technicians
- over 670,000 pilots and 1,085,000 cabin crew to fly them
- Over 137,000 Air Traffic Controllers
- Total required – 2,590,000

Women holding positions as pilots, air traffic controllers, and Technicians globally stood at 5.1% in 2021.

Global and Regional 20-year Forecasts

Pilots • Maintenance Personnel • Air Traffic Controllers
